4090

The tables from the 4090 series have a distinct, starkly restrained outline. The optical separation of table top and main frame (achieved through the insertion of spacers) emphasizes the delicacy and airiness of the design. The four tubular steel legs run flush with the edges of the table top, creating a single line of view and a unified composition. Due to their shared design vocabulary, the tables from the 4090 series and the model 4091 folding tables can be freely combined with each other in a wide range of applications.
