FLUX | Model 2550

FLUX combines the ease of a modern plastic shell with the classic features of a hand-crafted wood frame. The ergonomics of the highly flexible seat shell offer extraordinary sitting comfort. The variety of shell colours combined with the range of available stain colours for the solid beech frame allows the right colour combinations to be chosen for any design concept. Other options available include the choice of a fully upholstered shell or an optional seat cushion.

Frame

Hard frame from solid beech wood, profile strength: 55 x 35 mm, additional corner blocks. Legs from solid beech wood, with a double-butt rectangular profile, width: 28 mm, tapering from approx. 30 to 45 mm. Hard frame attached to legs with dowels and glue.

Frame surfaces

Beech wood with natural finish, optionally stained according to the BRUNE® collection.

Seat shell

Ergonomically shaped plastic hard-shell made from coloured polypropylene, featuring a 2-component “sandwich” structure with glass-fibre reinforcements, fully recyclable, lightfastness of 6-8 on the Wool scale (maximum value: 8). Insides of seat and back support with anti-slip fine structure, exterior with a smooth and high-gloss finish, optionally with seat padding or fully upholstered according to the BRUNE® collection.
